

A New Talk Show for Women

Are you currently pursuing your dream career? Do you have great interviewing skills? Do you want to inspire countless women? Are you interested in co-hosting a talk show? The newest talk show for women in the 757 will give you a platform to do so.

What we're looking for:

- Someone who looks good on camera, can speak well, think fast on their feet, have a fun, interesting personality, and have an opinion. They will be actively pursuing their passion. I.E.: MUA, Business Owner, Author, Dancer, TV host, Singer, etc.
- This host position is for the exposure mostly (self-promotion to a certain extent would be offered on the show). However, compensation will be revisited once (or if) sponsorship is secured.

If interested in this opportunity, please send (in the BODY of ONE email):

- Recent headshot (This can be an attachment)
- Link to your reel and/or a video of yourself completing an interview
- Short paragraph (no more than 6 lines) on why you would make a great co-host and what asset you will bring to the group of women.
- Short explanation: If you had your own segment on the show, what would it look like?
- Resume (optional)

* Although we would love to contact everyone who has applied, we will only contact you via email, if selected, to confirm a time to complete a screen test.*
